Soldier Hollow Venue
September 2004

During September 2004, Olympic Parks Directors made a final payment to Soldier Hollow Legacy Foundation of $200,000.

Olympic Parks Board of Directors (Utah Athletic Foundation) were very cognizant and complimentary to Soldier Hollow Legacy for their frugal spending to stretch the money of $750,000 granted, so that the Legacy Group got the most out of their grant.

It is refreshing to see responsible people, taking best care of public monies. Olympic Parks received about $70 million from 2002 Olympic Games to help finance the transition from the Olympic Games to continued Olympic legacy venues, for the benefit of people and all concerned.

Howard Peterson was the Executive Director of Soldier Hollow and has carefully dispersed the Legacy's funds to obtain the most advantage for the continued success to insure future success of this venue.
